Roni Mikhaylov

NY, piano

Student of Yefim Gulyaev

Roni Mikhaylov was born in Queens, NY in 2002. He started playing piano from the age of 6 with Yefim Gulyaev as his teacher. Roni's first public performance was in Baruch Performing Art Center at the age of 8. Twice a year consistently, he participates in private piano recitals. In 2017 Roni was accepted into the Frank Sinatra School of The Arts. Throughout his time there, he received the opportunity to join the Symphonic Orchestra, Jazz band and played in the pit for the show "Ragtime" and "The Phantom of the Opera". Roni is also an intern at Exploring the Arts and works with the Youth orchestra of St. Luke's and spreads his knowledge of music to a younger generation.
