G. Rossini - Ah, donate il caro sposo (Signor Bruschino)

Praised for her "agile, pleasantly phrased voice" and "achingly pure" timbre (Epoch Times), Gwyneth Campbell is a promising young American soprano.

Gwyneth, 16, started piano lessons with her father Jeffrey Campbell at the age of 2 and at 12 she was accepted as a student of Lorraine Nubar, Juilliard Pre-College.

She has performed at Carnegie Hall 27 times as a soloist in piano/voice as a winner at the AFAF, American Protégé International Piano and Strings Competition, Music-Fest and Concert Festival International Competition.

Gwyneth performed twice as an Omega Next Generation Artist. In the spring of 2013 Gwyneth was awarded with AFAF' Special Prize: she performed in the "Moscow Meets Friends".

As a winner of Concert Festival Concerto Competition 2013, Gwyneth performed 4 times with the Concert Festival Orchestra. In 2014 she received scholarship to participate in Concert Festival International Tour, St. Petersburg, Russia, where she met her new teacher - Prof. Maria Lyudko, Head of the Voice Department at the St. Petersburg Conservatory.

Recently, Gwyneth has started to teach beginning piano students; she loves watching their improvement and enjoyment of the instrument. In addition to music, Gwyneth likes reading and writing, science, art, distance running, and has a first-degree black belt in Taekwondo.
