Guest Artist

Matthew Kholodilin NY, piano
 Student of Svetlana Pichkhadze

Matthew Kholodilin was born in 2006 in New York City. He started to play the piano at the age of 5, and from 2011 he is student of Svetlana Pichkhadze's class. From that time Matthew was regularly taking part in classical music recitals held in such venues as Carnegie Hall, Brooklyn Conservatory of Music and Steinway Hall. In 2016 as one of the winners of Concert Festival Competition Matthew participated in Gala Concert at Le Centre de Russie in Paris, France. In 2017 Matthew entered Computer/Math program at Mark Twain Intermediate School for the Gifted and Talented. He plans to continue his piano studies.

A. Marcello/J.S. Bach - Adagio D minor
 M. Moszkowski - Etude G minor

Guest Artist

Ethan Resnik NY, piano
 Student of Arlene Portney

Ethan Resnik is sixteen and has been playing the piano for ten years. He has composed over 40 classical piano compositions, including a piano concerto. At age eleven, Ethan made his Carnegie Hall debut and has performed several times since, playing piano and alto saxophone, including his debut of an original piano composition. He will return to Carnegie's Weill Recital Hall to play another original composition, along with works by Beethoven and Tchaikovsky. Ethan earned second place in American Protégé International Piano and Strings Competition, American Protégé International Concerto Competition, first place in the American Fine Arts Festival Concerto Competition and will perform in Russia. He looks forward to participating in the Concert Festival International Summer Tour 2018 in Paris and as a guest artist in New York. For the past two years, he has donated his time to perform weekly hour-long concerts for residents at an assisted living facility. Ethan gave solo piano performances, raising over $3000 for Patient Access Network Foundation and Wounded Warrior Project. Ethan regularly performs at charity events and puts forth great effort in using his piano to inspire healing and positivity to our world.
